

Global System of Trade Preferences

Brief note on the Agreement on Global System of Trade Preferences among developing countries (GSTP)

I. Introduction

1. The Agreement on Global System of Trade Preferences among developing countries (GSTP) was negotiated in the year 1988 by 48 developing countries that were member of Group of 77.
2. The declared objectives of the GSTP are:
 - a. To promote and sustain mutual trade, and
 - b. To develop economic co-operation among developing countries (members of Group of 77).

II. Rules of Origin

- 1) The objective of these rules is to determine the origin of products eligible for preferential concessions under GSTP. Products, which have achieved the status 'originating in India', are eligible for preferential tariff treatment upon imports into participant countries.
- 2) Following products are considered as originating in India, if they are consigned directly to a participant country.
 - a) Products that are wholly obtained in India, as defined at 4 below.
 - b) Products obtained in India in the manufacture of which, in addition to the materials referred to at 4 below and materials originating in participant countries, materials imported from non – participant countries and / or materials of undetermined origin are also used, provided the value of materials imported from non – participant countries and / or materials of undetermined origin does not exceed 50% of the f.o.b. value of the product, subject to condition detailed at 5 below.
- 3) For the purpose of 2 (b), value of non-originating materials means the c.i.f. value at the time of importation of such materials or, if this is not known and cannot be ascertained and proved, the first ascertainable price paid for the materials in India.
- 4) Within the meaning of 2 (a) above, the following are considered as wholly obtained in India.

- a) raw or mineral products¹ extracted from its soil, its water or its seabed;
 - b) agricultural products² harvested there;
 - c) animals born and raised there;
 - d) products obtained from animals referred to in clause (c) above;
 - e) products obtained by hunting or fishing conducted there;
 - f) products of sea fishing and other marine products taken from the high seas by its vessels^{3,4};
 - g) products processed and/or made on board its factory ships^{4,5} exclusively from products referred to in clause (f) above;
 - h) used articles collected there, fit only for the recovery of raw materials;
 - i) waste and scrap resulting from manufacturing operations conducted there;
 - j) goods produced there exclusively from the products referred to in clauses (a) to (i) above.
- 5 Products which comply with origin requirements provided for at 2 above and which are used by a participant as input for a finished product eligible for preferential treatment by another participant shall be considered as a product originating in the territory of the participant where working or processing of the finished product has taken place provided that the aggregate content originating in the territory of the participant is not less than 60 per cent of its f.o.b. value⁶.
- 6 The following are considered to be directly consigned from India to the importing country.
- a. If the products are transported without passing through the territory of any non – participant country.
 - b. The products whose transport involves transit through one or more non – participant countries with or without transshipment or temporary storage in such countries; provided that
 - (i) the transit entry is justified for geographical reason or by considerations related exclusively to transport requirements;
 - (ii) the products have not entered into trade or consumption there; and
 - (iii) The products have not undergone any operation there other than unloading and reloading or any operation required to keep them in good condition.

7 When determining the origin of the products, packing forms a whole with the product it contains.

Chapter-V
Ground Rules
Article-9
Extension of negotiated concessions

1. Except as provided for in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article, all tariff, para-tariff and non-tariff concessions, negotiated and exchanged among participants in the bilateral / plurilateral negotiations shall, when implemented, be extended to all participants in the GSTP negotiations on a most-favoured-nation (MFN) basis.
2. Subject to Rules and Guidelines prescribed in this regard, participants parties to direct trade measures, sectoral agreements or agreements on non-tariff concessions may decide not to extend the concessions linked to such agreements to other participants. Such non-extension shall not have a detrimental impact on the trade interests of other participants, and when it has such an effect, the matter shall be submitted to the Committee for consideration and decision. Such agreements shall be open to all participants in the GSTP through direct negotiations. The Committee shall be informed of the initiation of negotiations on such agreements as well as on their provisions once concluded.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article, participants may grant tariff, non-tariff and Para-tariff concessions applicable exclusively to exports originating from participating least developed countries. Such concessions, when implemented, shall apply in equal measures to all participating least developed countries. If after granting of any exclusive right it proves detrimental to the legitimate trading interest of other participants, the matter may be brought to the Committee for a review of such arrangements.

Chapter-V
Ground Rules
Article-10
Maintenance of the value of concessions

Subject to terms, conditions or qualifications that might be set out in the schedules containing the concessions granted, a participant shall not impair or nullify these concessions, after the entry into force of this Agreement, through the application of any charge or measure restricting commerce other than those existing prior thereto, except where such charge corresponds to an internal tax imposed on a like domestic product, an anti-dumping or countervailing duty, or fees commensurate with the cost of services rendered, and except any measures authorized under articles 13 & 14.

Article-11
Modification and withdrawal of concessions

1. Any participant may, after a period of 3 years from the day the concession was extended, notify the Committee of its intention to modify or withdraw any concession included in its appropriate schedule.
2. The participant intending to withdraw or modify a concession shall enter into consultation and/or negotiations, with a view to reaching agreement on any necessary and appropriate compensation, with participants with which such concession was initially negotiated and with any other participants that have a principal or substantial supplying interest as may be determined by the Committee.

3. Should no agreement be reached between the participants concerned within six months of the receipt of notification and should the notifying participant proceed with its modification or withdrawal of such concessions, the affected participants as determined by the Committee may withdraw or modify equivalent concessions in their appropriate schedules. Any such modification or withdrawal should be notified to the Committee.

Article-12

Withholding or withdrawal of concessions

A participant shall at any time be free to withhold or to withdraw in whole or in part any item in its schedule or concessions in respect of which it determines that it was initially negotiated with a state which has not become, or has ceased to be, a participant in this Agreement. A participant taking such action shall notify the Committee and, upon request, consult with participants that have a substantial interest in the product concerned.

Chapter-V

Ground Rules

Article-13

Safeguard Measures

A participant shall be able to take safeguard measures to ward off serious injury or threats of serious injury to domestic producers of like or similar products, which may arise as a direct consequence of unforeseen substantial rise of imports enjoying preferences under the GSTP.

1. Safeguard measures shall be in accordance with the following rules :
 - a) Safeguard measures should be consistent with the aims and objectives of the GSTP. These measures should be applied in a non-discriminatory fashion among the participants in the GSTP.
 - b) Safeguard measures should in effect only to the extent and for such time as be necessary to prevent or remedy such injury.
 - c) As a general rule and except in critical circumstances, all safeguard measures shall be taken after consultation between interested participants. Participants intending to take such safeguard measures will be required to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the concerned parties within the Committee the serious injury or threat thereof justifying such measures.
2. Safeguard action to ward off serious injury or a threat of injury should be in accordance with the following procedures :
 - a) Notification : Any participant intending to take safeguard measures should notify the Committee of its intention, and the Committee shall circulate this notification to all participants. Upon receipt of such notification, interested participants intending to enter into consultations with the initiating participants shall so notify the Committee within 30 days. In critical circumstances when delay could cause damage which would be difficult to repair, action may taken provisionally without prior consultations, on the condition that consultations shall be effected immediately after taking such action;

b) Consultation :Interested participants should enter into consultations for the purpose of reaching an agreement as to the nature of the safeguard measures to be taken, or already taken, and its duration, and as to compensation or the renegotiation of concessions. These consultations should be concluded within three months of receipt of the original notification. Should these consultations not lead to an agreement satisfactory to all parties within the time period specified above, the matter should be referred to the committee for resolution of the issue. Should the Committee fail to resolve the issue within four weeks of the date of its having been referred to it, the parties by the safeguard action have the right to withdraw equivalent concessions or other obligations under GSTP of which the Committee does not disapprove of.

Article-14 Balance of payments measures

If a participant faces serious economic problems ducting the implementation of the GSTP, such participant shall be able to take measures to meet serious balance-of-payments difficulties.

1. Any participant, which finds it necessary to institute or intensify quantitative restrictions or other measures limiting imports concerning products or areas where concessions have been offered with a view to forestalling the threat of or stopping decline in its monetary reserves, shall endeavor to do so in order to prevent or remedy such difficulties. In a manner which preserves, as much as possible, the value of negotiated concessions.
2. Such action shall be notified immediately to the Committee which shall circulate such notification to all participants.
3. Any participant which takes action according to paragraph 1 of this article shall afford, upon request from any other participant, adequate opportunity for consultations with a view to preserving the stability of the concessions negotiated under the GSTP. If no satisfactory adjustment is effected between the participants concerned within three months of such notification, the matter may be referred to the Committee for a review.

Chapter-V Ground Rules Article-15 Rules of Origin

Products contained in the schedules of concessions annexed to this Agreement shall be eligible for preferential treatment if they satisfy the Rules of Origin, which shall be annexed to and form an integral part of this Agreement.

Article-16 Procedures relating to the negotiations of long-term and medium term contracts among interested participants in the GSTP

1. Within the framework of this Agreement, long-term and medium-term contracts involving import and export commitments in respect to specific commodities or products may be entered into among participants.
2. To facilitate the negotiation and conclusion of such contracts:
 - a) exporting participants should indicate the commodities or products for which they may be prepared to undertake supply commitments together with an indication of the quantities that may be involved;
 - b) Importing participants should indicate the commodities or products for which they could envisage undertaking import commitments and, where possible, an indication of the quantities that may be involved; and
 - c) The Committee will provide assistance for the multilateral exchange of information provided under (a) and (b) above and for bilateral and/or multilateral negotiations among interested exporting and importing participants for the purpose of concluding long-term and medium-term contracts.
3. Participants concerned should notify the Committee of the conclusion of long-term and medium-term contracts as soon as possible.

Chapter-V
Ground Rules
Article-17

1. In accordance with the Ministerial Declaration on the GSTP, the special needs of the least developed countries shall be clearly recognized, and concrete preferential measures in favor of these countries shall be agreed on.
2. To become a participant a least developed country shall not be required to make concessions on a reciprocal basis, and such participating least developed country shall benefit from the extension of all tariff, Para-tariff and non-tariff concessions exchanged in the bilateral/plurilateral negotiations which are multilateralized.
3. Participating least developed countries should identify their export products for which they may wish to seek concessions in the markets of other participants. Technical assistance by the United Nations and other participants in a position to do so, including the provision of relevant information relating to trade in the products concerned and the major developing import markets, together with market trends and prospects and trade regimes of the participants, should be provided to these countries on a priority basis to assist them in this task.
4. Participating least developed countries may, with respect to export products and markets identified under paragraph 3 above, make specific requests to other participants for tariff, para-tariff and non-tariff concessions and/or other direct trade measures, including long-term contracts.
5. Special consideration shall be given to exports from participating least developed countries in the application of safeguard measures.
6. The concessions sought in respect to these products may include :
 - a) dutv-free access. particularly for processed and semi-processed goods:

- b) the removal of non-tariff barriers;
 - c) the removal, where appropriate, of para-tariff barriers;
 - d) the negotiation of long-term contracts with a view to assisting participating least developed countries to achieve reasonable levels of sustainable exports of their products.
7. Participants shall sympathetically consider requests from participating least developed countries for concessions sought under paragraph 6 above and shall endeavor, wherever possible, to meet such requests, in whole or in part, as a manifestation of concrete measures to be agreed on in favour of participating least developed countries.

Chapter-V
Ground Rules

Article-18

Sub regional, Regional and Inter-regional Groupings

Tariff, para-tariff and non-tariff preferences applicable within existing sub regional, regional and inter-regional groupings of developing countries notified and registered in this Agreement shall retain their essential character, and there shall be no obligation on the members of such groupings to extend, nor the right of other participants to enjoy the benefits of such preferences. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply equally to the preferential agreements concluded with a view to creating sub regional, regional and inter-regional groupings of developing countries and to future sub regional, regional and inter-regional groupings of developing countries that will be notified as such and duly registered in this Agreement.
