ORDER

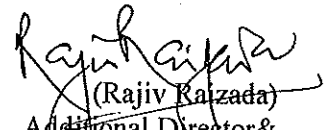

Subject: Appeal made under Section 19 (1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 – compliance to directions issued by the CIC – reg.

Shri Praveen Sakhujia vide his letter dated 24.10.2012 has made an appeal to the Central Information Commission against the Export Inspection Agency – Delhi for not providing information requested by him vide his application dated 23.07.2012.

Shri Sakhujia, vide letter-dated 23.07.2012, had sought three (03) information from CPIO, EIA – Delhi in respect of attestation of COO's (number of COOs allotted, issued and left pending by certain officers during 16 to 20 July 2012). In response, the CPIO, EIA – Delhi vide his letter-dated 22.08.2012 had informed Shri Sakhujia that the information sought was voluminous and will result in diversion of meagre resources of the organisation [section 7(9) of the RTI Act].

Now in compliance to CIC order (case no. CIC/SS/A/2012/003683), I have gone through the case papers and observe (i) that Shri Sakhujia is habitual of filing applications in a large numbers, (ii) that that Shri Sakhujia had asked similar information vide his applications dated 23.07.2012 & 27.07.2012, (iii) that primary responsibility of the organisation is to ensure efficient operations to generate revenue to pay for the salary of its employees and (iv) that for an organisation (EIA – Delhi) operating with around 66% of the sanctioned strength, I have no reasons to disagree with the contention of CPIO, EIA – Delhi that searching for the information sought would result in diversion of its meagre resources.

Since there is no denial of information, the appeal filed by Shri Sakhujia stands disposed of. Shri Sakhujia is also advised not to misuse his right to information as a tool for harassment of the organisation.
